Northwest Building Company Inc. Privacy Policy

In an effort to protect your privacy, we provide this notice explaining our online information practices. This privacy statement discloses the privacy practices for www.NorthwestBuildingCompany.com. Northwest Building Company Inc. strives to build our website visitors trust and confidence in the Internet by promoting the use of fair information practices. We are making our privacy policy available to you because we want to demonstrate our commitment to your privacy.

Our approach to managing information from our website is always "website visitor privacy first". This means that we carefully select how we use your information within our company and with certain third party partners. If you feel that we are not abiding by this privacy policy, please contact our webmaster by sending an email to webmaster@NorthwestBuildingCompany.com.

Types of information we collect
This policy applies to all information collected or submitted on our website. There are two categories of information: Anonymous and Personally Identifiable. Anonymous Information is information that cannot be tied to an identifiable website visitor. Examples include general website traffic information such as total number of visitors on our website, or Contact Us submissions where submitting information is optional.

Personally Identifiable Information is information that tells us specifics about you, such as name, email and address. We use this to deliver personalized information to you. An example is the eNewsletter on www.NorthwestBuildingCompany.com, which keeps visitors informed about Northwest Building Company Inc..

How We Use Your Information:

Anonymous Information
- Anonymous Information cannot be tied to personally identifiable information. We use this information to improve our website. This information helps us focus our resources on the features that are most popular with our website visitors.

It is quite possible that we will share non-identifiable aggregated demographic information with our partners and advertisers. For example, we may tell an advertiser that a specific number of visitors visited an area on our web site, but we will not disclose anything that could be used to identify individuals.

Personally Identifiable Information
• Registration Information: If you are providing personally identifiable information on a registration page (such as Client Login on www.NorthwestBuildingCompany.com) it will be used solely to respond to your inquiries.

• Request Information: If you are providing personally identifiable information on a request for information or services page, such as Contact Us or Client Login, we will use this information only to reply to your request in that category. For example, if you register to be notified when community information will be available, we will send periodic e-mails to notify you of that information. We do not share email lists or sell your information to any other company, ever. We may make your information available to outside marketing companies that we have hired solely for the purpose of distributing marketing materials to you from and about Northwest Building Company Inc..

Cookies
A cookie is a piece of data stored on the user's hard drive that contains information about the user. Our websites use cookies. When a website user fills out a form on our website (such as when registering for Realtor Login or signing up for Contact us) the contents of the form are saved in a cookie on their hard drive. The next time the website user needs information, the information is automatically populated for them from the cookie. We never link cookies to personally identifiable information. Our use of cookies is specific to storing registration/form information so the user will not have to enter it more than once, thereby saving time while on our site. If a user rejects the cookie, they may still use our website. The only drawback is that the user will be limited in some areas of our website.

Children's Privacy
Protecting the privacy of the young is especially important. For that reason, we never collect or maintain information through our website from those we actually know are under age 18, and no part of our website is structured to attract anyone under age 18.

Choice/Opt-Out
Website visitors who no longer wish to receive our materials may opt-out of receiving these communications by replying with "unsubscribe" in the subject line of the email, or email us at webmaster@NorthwestBuildingCompany.com.

How to Contact Us
Should you have questions or concerns about the Northwest Building Company Inc. privacy policies, please send an email to webmaster@NorthwestBuildingCompany.com.

Notification of Changes
If we decide to change our privacy policy, we will post those changes on our Main Page. We want our website visitors to be aware of what information we collect and how we use it. If at any point we decide to use personally identifiable information in a manner different from that stated at the time it was collected, we will notify those website visitors by email and they can choose to opt in or opt out. We will use information in accordance with the privacy policy under which the information was collected unless given permission to use it otherwise.
